

Unit 1.1: Early Families 2

Fill in the blanks.

1. A family consists of _____ people living _____ household. They may be related by _____, _____, or _____.
2. A family may include any combination of _____, _____, children, _____, adopted children, _____, or other relatives.
3. In the colonial times, the work of most families was _____.
4. Families worked to _____ and _____ land.
5. _____ family members worked to _____ for the family's needs.
6. Work done by both spouses was _____ and _____ for the family's _____.
7. Children were _____, for they helped with _____ at a very young age.

Questions.

8. What were the advantages and disadvantages of growing up in a colonial family?
9. Was parenting easier or more difficult then?
10. Do you think children growing up in a colonial family had problems, such as establishing their identity or feeling low self-esteem? Why?
11. What are some examples of characteristics of families today that are similar to those of the colonial family?