

Unit 1.1: Families in the Technological Age 2

Fill in the blanks.

1. Family functions change in response to _____ and _____ pressures.
2. Families that were _____ in an _____ economy went to work for others in an _____ economy.
3. The value of large families _____. Families had _____ children and established the _____ trend that still exists today.
4. Today's family faces _____ challenges (balancing work and family) but also faces _____ challenges (caring for older parents and retraining themselves to work in the computer era and a global economy).

Questions.

5. What past changes have made family living easier or better today?
6. What changes have made family living today more difficult?
7. What characteristics in a society could promote long-lasting family relationships and develop strong ties among relatives?