Funding is normally issued in two disbursements by the NSLSC:

Disbursements

- Your first disbursement will be deposited into your bank account near the beginning of your academic year;
- Your second disbursement will be deposited into your bank account at the mid-point of your academic year.
- Please note that your educational institution may advise the NSLSC that a portion (or all) of your approved disbursement is to be paid directly towards any outstanding academic fees. Remaining funds will be deposited into your bank account.

When must you start repaying your loans?

- No interest accrues on your loans while you are in school.
- Monthly loan payments begin six months after you leave school. Interest does not accumulate during this six month non-repayment period on your federal loan. Interest does accumulate during the six month non-repayment period on your provincial loan.

What portion of your funding must you repay?

- You will not have to pay back the grant and bursary funding, provided you maintain eligibility.
- You will have to repay your student loans.
- A payment can be made at any time without penalty.
- The National Student Loan Service Centre (NSLSC) manages the repayment process for SFS.
