

Middle Level Home Learning

Select activities from the Bingo Card below to complete at home. Try to fill in one complete line for a BINGO or do random squares that peak your interest. We hope you have fun doing the activities. :-)

B	I	N	G	O
Make a paper airplane and measure the distance it flies, then design another airplane differently and measure how far that one flies. Record your data and give a conclusion on why you think one went farther than the other.	Go on a nature walk with your family. Keep track or take pictures of as many birds, insects and mammals as possible. What do you notice about the animals and habitats in your area?	Find an interesting fact each day of the week about a wildlife animal in North America. Write them down in a journal. Ex. There are 4 different species of moose in North America.	Go on a nature walk and take pictures of as many animal prints as you can. Ask your parents to help identify them or go to the following website: https://www.almanac.com/content/animal-track-identification	Watch a youtube video, tv show, or movie. Write down the number of times you hear the word “the” and the word “and”. Write down the ratio of the : and after the show is done. Can you find two equivalent ratios?
Watch a movie in French.	Write a letter to a friend in cursive about how your life has changed during this pandemic. Do a paragraph on the positive, a paragraph on the negatives, and a paragraph on content of your own choice. Take a photo of the letter with your phone and send it to a friend.	Watch a couple of episodes of Bill Nye the Science Guy.	While eating dinner with your family, try speaking French to them and explaining all the food in French.	Design your own game using household items / materials. Write out the rules and procedures. Invite family members to play.
Make up a dance. Choreograph the steps. Video yourself teaching	You are Prime Minister, write a speech to your country on what you will do as Prime Minister of	Create an original piece of art, song or poem/ode celebrating Canada’s unique culture.	Go to https://www.nytimes.com/column/learning-whats-going-on-in-this-picture	Ask your parents/guardian for a measuring tape and measure the base and

the dance or write out the steps. Watch the cha-cha slide for ideas. Have fun and laugh!	Canada. (in French for FILA)		or find a picture in your home. Write a paragraph, page, story (it's your choice) of what is happening in the photograph. Share it with a family member.	height of a window in your house. Find the area and perimeter. Find a circle in your house and find the circumference and area. Explain to your family how you did all of this.
Design your own culture themed crossword puzzle. Give it to members of your family for them to solve. (French Immersion students are to do this activity in French)	Bake something (from your culture if you can) and add all fractions together when you're done. Show your parents/family members how you found common denominators.	Pretend that it's five years from now. Write a letter to a friend explaining what is happening in the world right now. Tell them how you felt during this time and what you wish you were able to do to change the situation.	Create a poster on a critical habitat for lynx in the Restigouche River watershed. Include information on why the area is a critical habitat for lynx. What is begin done to help this area recover?	Read a book or article online. Discuss what you read with someone. (Immersion students read a French book or article and discuss in French.)
Make a thank you card for an essential worker (in French for FILA students)	Estimate how many gallons of paint you would need to paint your room a new color. Calculate the area of your walls and don't forget to take away the area of windows and doors in your room. Hint: A gallon of paint covers approximately 350 square feet. Could you even calculate the price for your room makeover?	Grow certain foods yourself. You can grow them from scraps that you would normally throw away. Here is a link to a website that could give you a few ideas that you might like to try out or simply research for tips to grow your favorite fruit of vegetable. https://www.diyncrafts.com/4732/repurpose/25-foods-can-re-grow-kitchen-scraps	Watch a TV show with your family. How many examples of culture do you see in the episode? What types of Culture can you identify?	Play a card game of war with a little twist. The first person to call out the product (answer to the multiplication) gets to take those cards.